CASTING THE BALLOTS

Where Elections are Being Held Today.

COMPLETE LIST OF CANDIDATES.

General Offices to Be Elected in Thirty Different States—Representatives in Congress Will Be Chosen in All States Except Three—The Greatest Interest Is Centered in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The election this year is exciting outside of New York state only where the contest is with the Populists instead of between the old parties. It is a noticeable fact that there is less fusion than usual this year and the number of third and fourth party candidates is unusually large. The election of the representatives in congress will be held in all the states of the Union except Maine, Oregon and Vermont, which have already chosen their congressmen. The territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Utah will each elect one delegate to congress. The election of state officers, etc., will occur in 30 states. Legislatures will be elected in two others, and a constitutional amendment will be voted upon in one other.

All the general interest of the campaign seems to center on New York, where the excitement is most intense and the fight has been the hottest. The registration throughout the state shows a very large increase over last year. In all states except Tennessee there are three or four tickets. In Colorado, many of the city Populists have repudiated Governor Waite, but the party in the agricultural and mining districts seem more enthusiastic for him than two years ago. The fact that women will vote this year makes the outcome unusually uncertain. The Populists as a rule were the stanchest advocates of woman suffrage, but it is believed by many that the greater conservatism of women than of men will make the women's vote tell in favor of Republicans.

In Tennessee the Republicans and Democrats have the field all to themselves, as the People's party in that state have endorsed the candidates on both tickets. In most of the western states where there was fusion last year, each party is going it alone. In Nevada the silver men have nominated a straight ticket. In every western state and most of the middle and southern states the People's party have nominated both tickets. In some instances in the south the Republicans have endorsed the People's party candidates, and in South Carolina they have made no nominations at all. The Prohibitionists have placed tickets in every state except Nevada and Tennessee.

New York will elect a governor, lieutenant governor, judge of the court of appeals and the assembly. The people will vote upon two proposed amendments to the constitution of the state. The candidates for governor are: David Bennett Hill, Democrat; Everett P. Wheeler, Democratic Reform; Levi Parsons Morton, Republican; Charles B. Matthews, Populist; Francis E. Baldwin, Prohibition, and Charles H. Matchett, Socialist-Labor. The vote of the state for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 654,868; Republican, 600,350; Populist, 16,429; Prohibition, 38,190. The vote for secretary of state in 1893 was: Democratic, 520,614; Republican, 545,008; Populist, 10,818; Prohibition, 84,341; Socialist-Labor, 20,828; scattering, 3,362.

Connecticut will elect its state officers, for two years, and the legislature. The candidates for governor are: Ernest Cady, Democrat; O. Vincent Coffin, Republican; Edward C. Bingham, Populist; De Witt C. Pond, Prohibition; James F. Tuckey, Socialist-Labor. The vote for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 82,580; Republican, 77,018; Prohibition, 3,999.

Colorado will elect all its state officers, to serve two years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed Edward O. Wolcott, Republican. The people will vote upon two proposed amendments to the constitution of the state. The candidates for governor are: Charles P. Thomas, Democrat; Albert W. McIntire, Republican; Davis H. Waite, present incumbent, Populist. The vote of Colorado for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 53,584; Republican, 38,020; Prohibition, 1,637.

Wisconsin will elect state officers, for two years, and the legislature. The candidates for governor are: George W. Peck, present incumbent, Democrat; William Henry Upham, Republican; D. Frank Powell, Populist; J. F. Cleghorn, Prohibition. The vote of the state for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 177,448; Republican, 170,978; Populist, 9,670; Prohibition, 13,045.

California will elect its full list of state officers, to serve four years, and the legislature, which will choose a United States senator to succeed George C. Perkins, Republican; appointed by the governor upon the death of Senator Leland Stanford, Republican. The people of California are also to vote upon nine proposed amendments to their state constitution. The candidates for governor are: James H. Bndd, Democrat; Morris M. Estee, Republican; J. V. Webster, Populist; Henry French, Prohibition. The vote of California for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 118,151; Republican, 198,027; Populist, 25,311; Prohibition, 8,096.

Illinois will elect minor state officers, one-half its state senate, and all its assembly. The legislature will choose a United States senator as successor of Shelby M. Cullom, Republican. The people will also vote upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state. Bernard J. Claggett heads the state Democratic ticket, and Henry Wulf heads the Republican ticket. The other party candidates for state treasurer are: John F. Randolph, Populist; Howell J. Puterbaugh, Prohibition; Orrin L. Mann, Independent Republican. The vote of the state for president in 1892 was: Democratic, 426,281; Republican, 390,288; Populist, 22,207; Prohibition, 25,870. The vote for governor in 1892 was: Democratic, 425,497; Republican, 402,659; Populist, 20,108; Prohibition, 24,684.

New Jersey elects the legislature which will choose a United States senator to succeed John R. McPherson, Democrat.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

It Is Now Claimed by Both the Republicans and Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee has addressed a dispatch to Vice Chairman L. D. Apsley of Hudson, Mass., claiming for the Republicans the certain election of 183 members of congress, four more than a majority of the house, and the probable election of 218 Republicans.

Senator Faulkner, the chairman of the Democratic committee, says that the committee feels confident from its advices that the Democrats will elect a majority of members, and does not see now the complexion of the house can be changed from Democratic to Republican. He can not understand on what the Republicans base their assertions.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

THE Japanese Army Concentrating For Their Onward March.

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 6.—The report cable to the Associated Press that Fung Wang-Ching was set on fire before its evacuation by the Chinese has been confirmed by advices from the front. The Chinese having evidently abandoned hope of making successful defense against the advancing Japanese army, set fire to the castle, and they fled without waiting to be attacked.

A detachment of the first Japanese army has reached the landing place of the second army and communication between the two armies has been established.

Chinese Have No Hope.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A Shanghai dispatch says orders have been issued rescinding the projected dispatch of large supplies of rice for the army at Newchwang. It is due to the fact that the board of war has abandoned all hope of staying the progress of the Japanese army in Manchuria. The dispatch adds that many Chinese merchant vessels have recently been placed under the German flag.

China Anxious For a Settlement.

ROME, Nov. 6.—A dispatch received here from Pekin states that China is disposed to conclude peace with Japan on the basis of a guarantee of the independence of Corea and the payment of an indemnity, the amount to be fixed by the powers. The dispatch adds that it is reported that China has invited the representatives of the powers to intercede to secure peace.

Li Hung Chang Changed to Pekin.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 6.—It is stated that Viceroy Li Hung Chang instead of taking command of the First Chinese army, as it was said he had been ordered to do, has been transferred from Tien-Tsin to Pekin.

OPERATION FOR CONSUMPTION.

The Patient Is Reported as Doing Well and Likely to Recover.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Nov. 6.—A very difficult and delicate surgical operation was performed upon Ellis Clark at his home, in this city, by several local physicians. Several months ago Clark was taken ill with what was supposed to be consumption, although the symptoms were not exactly according to the customary diagnosis.

It was finally decided to remove a part of the back wall over the lungs and make an examination and remove with the knife any sores that might appear on the lungs. The operation was performed and the patient stood it well and seems to be doing nicely.

CHILDREN MURDERED

A Little Girl and Boy Horribly Butchered.

ATTEMPT TO BURN THE BODIES.

The Girl, Aged 6, Was Decapitated and Disembowled, and the Boy's Throat Was Cut From Ear to Ear, and His Head Nearly Severed From His Body—The Boy Is 9 Years Old.

PAULDING, O., Nov. 6.—A most appalling murder was discovered here yesterday morning. Two children of Samuel Good, living three miles north of town, were found in a brush pile, murdered, and an attempt had been made to burn their bodies. The girl, aged 6, was decapitated and disemboweled, and the boy's throat was cut from ear to ear, and his head nearly severed from his body. The boy is 9 years old. The children left home at 10 a. m. Sunday. At 3 p. m. a searching party was organized and searched all night, and at 3 o'clock yesterday morning the bodies were found. They presented a most horrible spectacle.

The news of the horrible affair spread rapidly, and soon hundreds of people were on the scene. Sheriff Staley was among the number, and arrested Charley Hart, a neighbor boy, who was at once suspected, and the people of the neighborhood are firm in their conviction of his guilt. Young Hart says he can not read or write and does not know his age, and is very nervous. He is about 18 years of age. When accused of the crime he denied it in a nervous way. The bodies were found within a few rods of young Hart's home and about half a mile from the home of the children.

The little boy's boots were found in the grass a short distance from the bodies. Their little hands were tied together with a piece of tarred rope attached to a billet of wood resembling a rough hewn pump handle. It is thought this will furnish a definite clew if the boy is guilty. One of the grounds of suspicion is that when the bodies were found the boy discharged his gun and ran to his home in an excited manner. He was one of the searching party and was not far distant when the children were found. He was taken to Van Wert and lodged in jail.

In addition to the arrest of Hart, Levi Cain and Clarence Brindle have been placed in jail. There is no direct evidence that they were connected with the crime, but they were found in Hart's house when the latter was taken into custody. The Hart residence, it was found, had been freshly scrubbed, and when it was searched two cutters and an ax were found to be missing. There is no doubt the murderer or murderers used such an instrument as an ax in the commission of their awful crime.

The people of Paulding and the country contiguous to the scene of the murder are in a frenzy over the affair, and, while there is no probability of immediate violence, it will go hard with those responsible for the death of the

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1894.

Generally fair weather during Tuesday; northwest winds.

Boys, put in your best licks to-day. Let the firing be steady all along the line.

THE Steubenville Gazette very pertinently says that "if every man who had his wages reduced under and by the McKinley bill would vote the Democratic ticket, the whole country would go Democratic by an overwhelming majority."

PHILADELPHIA, that hotbed of Republicanism, has a bigger registered vote than New York, although the latter city is much larger. It is claimed that there are 50,000 illegal or fraudulent registrations in the Quaker City and the Philadelphia Record offers $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of persons engaged in the conspiracy against the purity of the ballot. In one instance it was found that a man had registered his dog.

A SPECIAL from Lowell, Mass., says: "Since the passage of the tariff bill there has been a great improvement in business in many of the large mills and in a number of establishments outside the large corporations. In a large majority of the mills and workshops the employees are again working full time, and a talk with a number of operatives does not reveal the fear that there will be suspensions of work such as were exhibited during the summer months."

Democratic times are coming.

Ba'ER BOSLEY, of the Winchester Sun, is the G. O. P. candidate for Congress in the Tenth district, but he is one Republican who doesn't try to bamboozle the farmers on the wheat question. He was honest enough a few days ago to tell them that the low price of that product was due to overproduction and not to a Democratic administration. He says:

In 1893 we had about 63,000,000 people and raised about 600,000,000 bushels of wheat, in addition to the large stock on hand from the year before. This gave us in 1893 nearly eleven bushels for each person, large and small. Thus it will be easily seen that we have grown in late years twice as much wheat as we had a market for in America.

Mr. Bosley's party believes in a home market, but if the wheat growers had to depend on that, they wouldn't be getting even 50 cents now for their wheat.

THE ZODIACAL LIGHT.

A Phenomenon In Nature Commonly Known as "The Sun Drawing Water."

Sometimes in the evening, some little time before and during twilight, and sometimes—though rarer—before and during sunrise, a close observer may detect peculiar fanlike streaks of darker and lighter shading across the sky. These streaks, of which the plainer ones may number from four to six, together form a triangle, with its base on the horizon and extending out at varying altitudes.

This appearance still holds rank as an unexplained phenomenon in nature. It occurs only occasionally. There may be a fine illustration on a given evening, and while there may be a week of clear sunsets succeeding not a trace of the streaks will be visible.

From this it would seem that a particular atmospheric condition must be one of the factors in its production. The assumption would be supported by numerous analogies not necessary to enumerate. In the proper atmosphere, then, let it be assumed that the streaks are due to alternate lines of shade and light.

Now, let something to some extent obstruct the rays of the sun which has set, either an impediment in the distant landscape or an unseen cloud, the combination at the proper angle with the observer's vision, and it is probable that he may approach a solution of the long standing puzzle.

The fanlike appearance is such for the same reason that the lines in a brick wall leading away from the observer seem to focalize to a center, as do also railway tracks seemingly come together in the distance. These zodiacal lines are undoubtedly parallels, as are lines of cloud streaks that to our vision seem to point to a common starting point. It is more than probable that this modest and unobtrusive streaking of the clear evening sky has been unsolved because of its very simplicity. It is probably only a modification of what is commonly known as "the sun drawing water." —Pittsburgh Dispatch.

BROWNIE ROBINSON.

A Touching Tribute to the Loved One Who Has Gone, From a Friend at Florence.

Florence (Ala.) Times: "It is our painful duty to announce the death of our dear young friend, Miss Brownie Robinson. After a brief illness of ten days, which no one realized would be fatal, this dear girl passed away to her eternal rest, between three and four o'clock Wednesday morning, October 24th; aged thirteen years and nine months.

"When the news was spread that Brownie was dead, the whole community was shocked and distressed, for this young girl was loved by every one with a depth of affection that is rarely experienced. All the morning, people could be seen wending their way to this grief-stricken home laden with flowers, but with bowed heads, weeping for her who had gone.

"Though not yet fourteen years of age, she was richly endowed of God. In maturity and appearance she was many years older. Her great beauty was a constant joy to all who loved her; and her surpassingly sweet nature drew every one to her. In her home life, which is too sacred to touch, in her school life, both church and secular, with her many friends, old and young, the impress of this sweet, faultless character will ever remain. At a very early age she united with the Methodist Church, and her life has shown that she was indeed a follower of Christ. When those around her bedside knew that death was very near, she was asked, 'Brownie, are you ready to meet your Savior?' She gently, sweetly said, 'I am glad, I love Him.' Beautiful Christian faith! As she lay in her white robes with the beautiful flowers about her, she looked like a young queen, fallen in the race; or better still, a beautiful angel of Heaven, whom we should approach reverently.

"Funeral services conducted by Rev. Dr. West and Rev. Horace Lacy were held at the house at 12:30 o'clock, after which a large crowd of sorrowing friends accompanied the bereaved family to the L. and N. train which carried them to their old home, Maysville, Ky.

"A FRIEND."

These are Democratic Times.

KENT, OHIO, November 4.—Increased orders at the Shattuck Chair Factory resulted in the addition of several more workmen, who go in to-morrow. The S. P. furniture factory reports many orders and has added to its working force. One Barberville Republican paper gives reports from nine factories, all showing business prosperous and more men being employed daily. Major Charles F. Dick's new paper at Cuyahoga Falls reports a boom at local factories, some of which are running at night. In the past week 30 men have been added to the Erie shop force, and the noon hour has been cut in two.

A Sad Death.

Rosa Linnie Ball, daughter of Mary Frances and Thomas Ball, died at her home near Helena, October 29th.

She had commenced teaching a public school at Hill Top in Fleming County, when a much dreaded fever seized her and compelled her to close. She was brought home where after nearly three weeks severe suffering she expired, leaving many friends and associates to mourn her death. She was educated in the Helena public school and was a bright scholar. The family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Biggest in Four Years.

HARRISBURG, PENN., November 4.—The shipments of rails, bridge and electric railway work from the Pennsylvania Steel Works during October were the largest of the year.

October's output of rails was 27,000 tons, the largest monthly tonnage in four years. Yesterday $73,000 were paid out in wages to about 3,700 men. The prospects for November favor street railway work in nearly all branches.

Tolle and Miss Ross Key, Mr. Thaddeus Bullock and Miss May Knoweshaw, Mr. R. L. Mason and Miss Lizzie Tolle, of Maysville, Mr. Robert Key and Miss Reila Cooper, Mr. Thomas Gooch and Miss Nannie Tool, Maysville, Mr. Claude Tucke and Miss Ella Forman, of Cincinnati. Mrs. John Holiday chaperoned the party. They arrived at the springs at eleven o'clock. The ladies had prepared an elegant lunch which was served on the dancing platform. The party then proceeded on the mission of their journey, and after a weary climb up the mountains and a visit to Peter's Cave, where fun plenty and chestnuts few, they descended to Glen where chestnuts found in abundance. Returning to Esculapia a short time was spent in the company of the proprietor, Mr. Beech, who added greatly to the day's enjoyment in many ways. On the return trip supper was served in the woods of Needmore, in camp style. It was a day to be remembered by all.

THE SILVER TONGUED ORATOR.

Colonel Breckinridge Greeted by a Tremendous Crowd at the Court House Last Night.

The announcement that Colonel W. C. Breckinridge would speak at the court house last night brought hundreds of people to Maysville from all the surrounding country.

They came from Augusta, Dover, Germantown, Mt. Olivet and most all other neighboring towns were represented. Parties were here from Ellizaville, having driven the twenty miles in the cold wind.

Half-past seven o'clock was the hour announced for the speaking, but by 6:30 the lobby at the court house and the steps leading to it were packed and jammed with people. At 6:45, the doors were opened or were forced open, and then such a scrambling for seats was never before witnessed. In less than five minutes the house was packed to the doors, and it was almost impossible to force one's way through the aisles. It is estimated that 200 or 300 women were in the audience. Great crowds of people were turned away. Haucke's Band reached the doors about 7 o'clock, and after three attempts to get to the front the boys had to give it up and remain in the lobby.

When Colonel Breckinridge, accompanied by Mrs. Breckinridge, Colonel W. W. Baldwin and Mr. J. N. Kehoe, entered the doors, the crowd arose and greeted him with cheers. It took the party some time to reach the front.

Mrs. Breckinridge occupied a seat on the rostrum during the speaking.

Colonel Breckinridge began speaking before 7:30 and it was after 9 o'clock before he closed. It was a masterly and eloquent presentation and discussion of the political issues between the two great parties, and the audience never tired of listening, the speech being punctuated with cheers and applause.

A Delightful Musicals.

Mrs. Mattie Bruce, nee Evans, formerly of this city, gave a most delightful musical at her pretty home in Covington a few evenings since. The Commonwealth says: "This gifted young woman has rare capabilities as a musician, reads well and is a superior accompanist. Her repertoire is very fine, and she has a bold, independent touch and understands the art of modulation. The participants were Mrs. Jessie Bowren Caldwell, Mr. Mason Cabell, Messrs. Bert and Mortimer Sohn, Mrs. Greene Fenley, Miss Lallie Morgan, Miss Maunen, Mr. George Abbott and the hostess gave several duets and as both performers play with soul it was especially received with applause. Mr. Abbott has real genius and while he does not profess to be called a 'specialist' his admirers place him there. The vocal trio, a pretty waltz song, was sung by the Misses Morgan, Mannen and Mrs. Greene Fenley. Mrs. Bruce hopes to be able to begin a series of musicals which is a most excellent idea. She may not always succeed in combining such an "array of artists" but it is her desire to give many evenings with 'music,' 'heavenly maid that brings to earth gladsome notes of joy.'

The Turnpike King.

"W. W. Baldwin, a wealthy Blue Grass capitalist, who resides in a beautiful country place near Maysville, is stopping at the Burnett," said Friday's Commercial Gazette. "Mr. Baldwin, who is the largest owner of turnpike property in Kentucky, and probably in the world, is a frequent visitor to Cincinnati, where he is quite well known. He is a man who dabbles little in politics, but has his friends and sticks to them. Colonel Baldwin has always been a strong friend of the Breckinridge family. He has not found it in his heart to throw stones at the Ashland Congressman, and regretted his defeat. He is in strong sympathy with the present Senatorial boom for Colonel Breckinridge, and may do him some yeoman service in the oncoming fight."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has great curative powers in all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

COLONEL ANDREWS' LOSS.

HIS Hotel at St. Louis Destroyed by Fire Last Saturday Night.

A special from St. Louis says: "The Belvidere, a family hotel, at Fourteenth street and Washington avenue, was almost entirely burned out by fire about midnight Saturday night. It is estimated that the loss on the building, which belongs to the General Beauregard estate, and contents will range from $50,000 to $75,000; partially insured. Two bell boys succeeded in arousing the guests, who escaped without suffering more than the loss of baggage."

Colonel F. S. Andrews was the lessee and manager of the Belvidere, and his many friends in Maysville and elsewhere in this section will learn with regret of his misfortune. His wife is a sister of Mrs. M. C. Russell, of East Third street.

A telegram from Mr. Andrews states that the loss is not as heavy as first reported.

In Social Circles

MISS ALICE HIGGINBOTHAM received at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Shackleford, No. 311 Market street, from 2 to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna Darnall, who will on the morrow wed Mr. H. C. McDougle, of Lexington.

THE affair was rather in the nature of a farewell to Miss Darnall, and expressions of congratulation were tempered with the regret that her own happiness shall hereafter necessitate her residence in another city.

After greeting the charming hostess and her graceful assistant, Miss Darnall, the guests entered the dining room where chocolate and wafers were daintily served by Misses Ellen Shackleford, Katherine Albert and Rosa Pickett.

THEY WERE HUNGRY.

L HILL'S STORE BURGLARIZED AND A LOT OF MEAT AND FLOUR STOLEN LAST NIGHT.

THIEVES made a raid on Mr. L. Hill's grocery on Market street sometime last night, and provided themselves with a lot of eatables.

They effected an entrance by climbing over the fence in the rear and then forcing the door.

A ham, two shoulders, some side meat, several sacks of flour, some chewing tobacco and other articles were stolen. One sack of flour, broken open, was found in the alley that leads out to Third street.

The job was the work of local "talent," of course, and the thieves will no doubt be captured.

SEVEN BOATS ON FIRE

They Were All Loaded With Cotton at the Time.

THREE WHARVES IN SAVANNAH.

The Different Fires Were Over a Mile Apart And Were Raging at Nearly the Same Time—The Origin of the Flames Are Surrounded in Mystery—All the Vessels Saved.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 6.—At 6:30 yesterday evening fire was discovered in the hold of the cotton steamer Skidby, at the Central Compress wharf. The fire was in hold No. 3, in which there was about 2,500 bales of cotton. The Skidby had about 10,000 bales aboard. She had about concluded loading and would have cleared today. The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered.

At 6:15 it was discovered that there was fire in the cotton in the hold of the steamer Baltimore City at the Gordon press wharf, about a mile away from the scene of the fire on the Skidby.

Alongside of the Baltimore City lay the steamer Castle Garth, and, a few minutes after the discovery that the former's cotton was afire, fire was also discovered in the fore peak of the Castle Garth, in which compartment there were about 100 bales of cotton and the seamen's clothes. The fire on the Baltimore City was but small and was soon put out. On the Castle Garth it was more obstinate, and was not extinguished until the sailors' clothes had burned and all cotton in the compartment more or less damaged.

About an hour after the discovery of the fire on the Baltimore City an alarm of fire was given from the steamer Stag, also loading at Gordon's wharf along with the Baltimore City and the Castle Garth. This fire proved to be the most obstinate of the three of the Gordon wharf.

About the same time that the Stag was reported afire at Gordon's wharf, fire broke out in the hold of the steamer Delgarth at the Central press wharf, near the Skidby, where the first fire occurred, and in a few minutes the steamer Petunia, also at the Central press wharf, was reported with fire in her cotton. The three ships afire at this wharf were not over 300 yards apart. The three other ships afire were a mile away at the other edge of the city. The fire on the Petunia was easily extinguished. The Delgarth's fire was extinguished when about 300 bales had been damaged.

All of the fires are out now. Loss, as far as can be estimated at this time, is about $50,000. The ships and the cargoes are covered by insurance. As to the origin of the fires there is no satisfactory explanation.

In the case of the Stag, a phosphorescent glow was seen in her hold a few minutes before the fire broke out and it is surmised that the Stag's fire originated in this glow. There has recently been trouble among the longshoremen in this city, but there is none now. Last spring the union shoremen went out on a strike, but recently a great many of the strikers have returned to work at the rates at which the non-union men were working.

At 12:05 this morning a slight fire occurred on board the steamer Arneema at the Central railroad wharf, but it was soon extinguished. This makes seven vessels that were on fire within as many hours.

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

Bud Clendenin Held for the Killing of Dr. Davis.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The trial of Bud Clendenin, charged with the murder of Dr. J. W. Davis, near Montgomery, on the 9th of August, resulted yesterday in his being convicted of murder in the first degree. A new trial was asked for. The trial of Clendenin has been one of the most desperate legal battles ever fought in this city and the lawyers engaged were among the best in the state.

It was pretty well established during the trial that the killing of Dr. Davis was the result of a conspiracy on the part of the miners who took part in the battle with Wyant's men at Eagle. During the strike there last March many of the men were wounded and Davis was their physician, and they feared his testimony against them in the trial which was then in progress and at which the murdered man was to testify next day. Davis was waylaid on a lonely mountain road, and shot as he passed in his buggy.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

Several Passengers Hurt but None Thought Fatally.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 6.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train from St. Louis to San Antonio was wrecked near Luling yesterday. The engine struck a horse and the engine and mailcar with the passenger coaches were derailed. Several passengers were injured.

Mrs. T. J. Wakeman of San Antonio was considerably bruised and cut, but no bones broken.

Mrs. Kemper of St. Louis was hurt about the head.

A woman and her child, name unknown, were also slightly injured.

The wounded were brought here and are being taken care of by friends. The train was delayed only a few hours.

Double Tragedy in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.—Humphrey Johnson, a well-to-do farmer in Collinwood, a suburb of Cleveland, shot and killed his wife, 30 years his junior, yesterday afternoon, and then suicided by the same means. He was somewhat penurious and she was liberal in spending his money. Their quarrels were frequent and ended in the tragedy.

Some one has said that a diet of oatmeal and brown bread tends to promote the growth of the hair. However this may be, the diet is a good one for many more assured reasons.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

Furnished by the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company:	Week.	Year.
Offerings.....	1,270	61,850
Rejections.....	235	16,211
Actual sales.....	1,035	45,579
Receipts.....	409	48,137

We are glad to report a generally improved market. All grades were advanced both old and new. Only "double" old showed little change, though the bidding on these goods also was certainly quicker, and some very satisfactory sales were made when they were sweet and with color. The better feeling showed itself on the first day of the week, and continued throughout the week and in the face of quite large offerings. At a result there were but few rejections.

It is quite a long time since we have been able to present to our shippers any encouraging news, and we hope that we may have the satisfaction of reporting in our next at least a continuation of the past week's prices, but, of course, as intimated in our last circular, we are no prophets, and the least expected often happens. We are of the opinion that advance to date is not more than on a level in price with other commodities, considering the difficulties and requirements attendant upon its production, curing and handling, and therefore think that values should, under anything like favorable business conditions, hold where they are. The demand during the week was principally from the manufacturers. Only limited bidding by speculators. From our advices we may expect new tobacco on the breaks within the next week or two.
